

Industrial supplies (1992–1998)

Not the most exciting stuff in the world. But as the legendary copywriter David Ogilvy once said, “There are no boring products. Only boring writers.” These samples show that even the most ordinary items—like that super-jumbo roll of toiler paper, for example—don’t have to sound so dull, after all.

Flag Strip™ Barricade Tape

Not Your Ordinary Barricade Tape . . .

Just tear along the perforations and—voilà!—this anything-but-ordinary barricade tape sprouts 14" “flags” to dramatically increase your barrier’s visibility. It’s impossible to miss!

Specifications: Constructed of non-adhesive, 4-mil polyethylene, this tape is tough enough to stand up to the elements and durable enough to reuse again and again . . .

Vibration-Reducing Work Gloves

*Soft, Luxurious GelFoam™ Padding
Decreases Vibration by Up to 70%*

If you work with jackhammers or power tools . . . if you spend grueling hours driving heavy machinery . . . even if you’re just looking for a soft, comfortable work glove that simply feels good to wear . . . these are the gloves for you!
